Maria Manahan - CEO of Campbell-Stone Senior Living

On Monday, November 14th the Rotary Club of Sandy Springs had the pleasure of hearing Maria Manahan, CEO of Campbell-Stone Senior living, speak about the vital role Campbell-Stone plays in the Sandy Springs community.

Maria has been at Campbell-Stone four years. However, Maria's ties to Campbell-Stone extend beyond the last four years. In the mid-90s, Maria worked at Campbell-Stone for 6.5 years in different roles. She returned to Campbell-Stone to serve on the Board of Directors and in 2018 became the organization's CEO. Maria has spent her entire career in the nonprofit sector. She has a bachelor's degree in Urban Studies from Georgia State University. A Certificate in Gerontology from Georgia State and a master's in Policy Studies with a major in nonprofit management also from Georgia State.

For more than 50 years, Campbell-Stone has been on a mission. No one should have to choose between affordable senior housing and a safe, caring, active community. Campbell-Stone offer's two HUD-subsidized senior living communities—in Buckhead and in Sandy Springs. Their non-profit communities have become home
