Upcoming Program

Doctor Basil Margolis - December 3, 2018

Please join us December 3rd for an informative discussion with one of Atlanta's leading cardiologist.

✘ Dr Basil Margolis is a Board Certified cardiologist who is currently Medical Director of the Emory Cardiac Rehabilitation and Prevention Program at Saint Joseph's Hospital in Atlanta. He is also an Adjunct Associate Professor at Emory University's School of Medicine. Born in Zimbabwe he attended medical school at Cambridge University in England and subsequently completed his cardiology fellowship program at Harvard University School of Public Health in Boston. He is a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology as well as a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians in England. His main area of interest focuses on cardiac risk factors and the prevention of coronary heart disease which remains the leading cause of death in the United States.

Last Meeting at Rotary

Three distinguished Georgia Citizens who represent us

Rotary Club of Sandy Springs hosted three of our state representatives last Monday, November 12.

Senator Jennifer Jordan (Senator for District 6) seen above discussing our local legislation.

Kay Kirkpatrick (Senator for District 32) seen above telling us about her three biggest pushes; transit, voting, and property taxes.

Esprit de Corps was a phrase used by Debora Silcox (Representative District 51) when she described the Georgia legislature. Let's all hope that we remember the ties that bind us are far stronger than those that tear us apart.
