Upcoming Program

Robert Evans Wilson

Robert Evans Wilson, Jr. is an award-winning speaker and writer. He is a storyteller who has entertained audiences around the world. He creates stories for speeches, articles, fiction and advertising.

Rob is the author of The Un-Comfort Zone an internationally syndicated column on innovation, achievement, and leadership that appears in Psychology Today and more than 300 other publications. He is also the author of four books including: Wisdom in the Weirdest Places, a collection of inspirational stories on how to motivate yourself and others; Never Coming Back a psychological mystery novel about a motion picture director; The Annoying Ghost Kid, a humorous children's novel about how to deal with bullies that will be made into a motion picture by Lead Lion Media; and OFF THE WALL! The Best Graffiti The Walls of America, a hilarious collection of illustrated witticisms.

Rob, a serial entrepreneur who has started nine companies, is also a successful advertising copywriter and creative director. Over the past 20 years, he has assisted hundreds of businesses with their advertising efforts. As a result he has earned eight SouthStar advertising awards. The SouthStar is unique among advertising awards and is awarded for more than just creativity - it is awarded for increasing the revenue of the client.

As an expert on innovation and harnessing creative-thinking for fun and fortune, he'll be presenting his popular program: The Innovator's Lifestyle.

Please come out and give Robert a warm Rotarian welcome.
